For those that are new to this sort of thing it is important to bear in mind all that you are about to witness and indeed we hope you will take part in, is fan activity.

That is:

BY FANS FOR FANS WITH FANS TAKING PART.

We at the Emporium (actually it's Reb who does it all) try to ensure that everything runs if not to 'plan' then at least near enough it to be recognisable.

BUT this is DISCWORLD and sometimes things just happen in a different order. So be not afraid, whatever happens you will be amongst fellow fans and even our guest of honour,

TERRY PRATCHETT himself, so - relax and let the magic happen.

Things you might like to do:

This being the 10th Anniversary of the Town Twinning between WINCANTON and ANKH-MORPORK there is a CIVIC CEREMONY to mark the occasion. Lord Vetinari and the Town Mayor along with other ne-re do well's will exchange fraternal greetings in the Town Hall about 2.30pm. Space is limited so there will be a raffle for tickets (see over).

Lots of other things will be going on as well to keep you entertained.

Ten years ago we were privileged to have an American fan who served in the US Air Force give us an 'unofficial' fly past in his stealth bomber as he was on his way back from a training flight. We thought that could not be bettered, until this year. Commander Henry Springle of the Fleet Air Arm is based at Yeovilton, he is also a Discworld Fan. He has a stealth Lynx helicopter and we suggest you look above you at about 11.30
